NOTICE

The Cameroonian Community is informed that in view of the decision of the Government of South Africa to move the country to level one lockdown, an official of the High Commission will be travelling to Yaounde on Sunday 01st November 2020 to check and collect passports of Compatriots which have been produced at the General Delegation for National Security.

You will be kept informed of their readiness and obtainability at the High Commission when opportune.

The High Commission appreciates the Cameroonian Community for their patience, good collaboration and understanding.

The High Commissioner

Adrien Kouambo J
High Commissioner
