PRESS RELEASE

The High Commission of the Republic of Cameroon in South Africa informs Cameroonians blocked in South Africa and other countries of the SADEC sub-region as a results of COVID-19 lockdown that:

1. The Minister of External Relations through a correspondence of 04th May 2020 informed CAMHICOM Pretoria of the instructions of the Head of State, His Excellency PAUL BIYA that these cameroonians should be repatriated on Saturday, 9th May 2020 by Ethiopian Airlines on the itinerary Johannesburg-Dubai-Yaounde (NSIMALEN). CAMHICOM-Petoria was instructed to contact the competent authorities for this repatriation to succeed.
2. The Measures that the High Commission has put in place in collaboration with the Gouvernement of South Africa do not enable us as of now to confirm the 9th of May as the date of departure.
3. As soon as the arrangements will be finalised, CAMHICOM-Pretoria will inform those concerned of the modalities for travelling to Cameroon./-

Adrien Kouambo
High Commissioner
